

Customers

We offer our customers the consistent high quality of our products, processes and services.

We produce and deliver exactly what was agreed upon with the customer.

We encourage problem-solving and we form a development partnership with our customers.

Staff

Quality emerges with the personal commitment of our staff members – each and every one of them is responsible for making a contribution to it.

We encourage a competent and motivated staff that is willing to learn in order to live up to the demands we have set for ourselves on the quality of our products, processes and services.

Suppliers

We give precise instructions and require our suppliers to keep their commitments and constantly maintain their high quality.

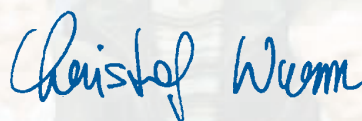

We associate with selected suppliers and expect them to deliver competent solutions.

The staff of BEG pledges to execute the quality policy and to continuously improve all processes.

For and on behalf of all staff members:
